JERSEY CITY.

A CHURCH SECRET WELL KEPT.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR A POPULAR PASTOR-SO-

CIAL NOTES AND INCIDENTS. Two hundred men and women connected with the I wo hundred men and women connected with the South Bergen Reform Church of Jersey City have demonstrated that they can keep a secret. The church celebrated its twenty-first anniversary on Sunday last, and the congregation decided to make which occurred on Tuesday, a red-letter day also. The affair took the form of a surprise party to Mr. and Mrs. Grant, and that was the secret that was so carefully guarded. The reception took place at of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Middleton, No the Rev. T. J. Kommers, of the Lafayette Reformed Church, was obliged to respond for him. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Van Winkle, Mrs. and Miss Holt, Mrs. and Miss Hilliard, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. H. Griswold, Mr. and Mrs. F. Davey, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Clement, Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. and Miss Battey, Mrs. Collins, Washington, Mrs. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. and Miss Battey, Mrs. Collins, Washington, Mrs. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. and Miss Battey, Arts. Collins, Mrs. James Vosburgh, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. C. harles Millington, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Post, Miss Stella Post, William Post, Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard, Miss Rein-

Detwiller, William Gennett, George Chirke and Holmes.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murtaugh. No. 2 Mercer-st., Jersey City, was the scene on Wednesday evening of a surprise party given for their niece, Miss Carrie Stephens. Among those present were Chauncey Martin, Frank Colville, B. W. Stephens, H. Jungling, A. Martin, John Ruddick, D. C. Johnston, Alfred Lewis, W. Paxton, B. P. Stephens, G. Brow, Ray Brow, Theodore Arnheiter, Albert Zeigler, Walter Rowe, J. Hoff and Edward Hennery, the Misses Grace Monigomery, Mamie Murpay, Minnie Francis, Ada Hempfield, Louisa Ficken, Frankle Hill, Ella Stephens, Lottle Peck, Allie Dyke, L. Dyke, Barbana Ficken and Dora Bunnell.

the Hoboken Common Council on Monday, gave a dinner for his colleagues at Meyer's Hotel on Mon-Offerman, Fox. Weinthal, Snyder, Murray, phia.

The members of the Felipa Magazine Club were received a few evenings ago by Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bartel, of No. 76 West Thirty-third-st., the occasion being the closing reception of the organization for the season.

The Rev. Albert Van Dusen, the new pastor of the Monroe Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, and his family, were guests at a delightful reception several evenings ago at the parsonage, in West Forty-fourth-st., given by the members of his conversation.

several evenings ago at the parsonage, in West Forty-fourth-st., given by the members of his congregation.

This afternoon the New-Jersey Athletic Club's team of amateur ball-tossers will open the season on the New-Jersey Oval, at Bergen Point, with the team representing the 7th Regiment, N. G. S. N. Y. Hereafter the members of Company I, 4th Regiment, N. G. N. J., will drill every Monday and Friday evening in Metropolitan Park Pavilion, in order to be proficient for the annual encampment of the State Militia at Sea Girt during the latter part of July. The first annual inspection of the company will be held by Lieutenant-Colonei Charles Rolt-wood on Friday evening, May 3t. The members expect to possess their new uniforms and other equipments by that date.

The following officers were elected at the annual meeting of the Jefferson Dramatic Club on Tuesday evening: President, John J. Hickey, vice-president, Miss Mary Tierney, recording secretary, Andrew T. Gill; corresponding secretary, Cornelius S. Brady: treaspert, Hans Dimpse; chalrman of the Dramatic Committee, John T. Griffen.

In the First Reformed Church, in Avenue C, next Thursday evening the Bayonne Musical Society will give its seventh grand concert, with the assistance of the Dudley Buck Quartet, from the metropolis, The choruses will be from Handel's "Messianl' and "Samson," and Hayden's "Creation." Professor William Till will act as conductor, and his daughter, Miss Mildred Till, will preside at the piano.

The last session of the season for the Fortnightly Euchre Club was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hicks, west Thirtieth-st. and Avenue C.

On Monday evening of next week the members of the constant and the constant and the constant of the constant and the members of the constant and the const declared the pulpit of that church vacant, dismissing their pastor, the Rev. C. H. Garlick. The pastor attended the meeting which expelled him. When he saw the way things were going, he ran for a policeman, and tried to get him to have the meeting stopped. The policeman refused to interfere and then the pastor left. The trustees discontinued the services of their pastor, it is said, on account of numerous fights, of which he was the cause. The pastor denies the charges made against him by the congregation.

A report reached this city yesterday that diphtheria had broken out at the City Home, an institution for incorrigible children in Verona.

The annual court of the Society of the Colonial Wars of the State of New-Jersey was held yesterday afternoon. The meeting was presided over by General E. Burd Grubb. The following officers were elected: Governor, General William S. Stryker; licutenant-governor, General William S. Stryker; licutenant-governor, Walter Chandler; eccretary, George E. S. worth Kouen; treasurer, William M. Deen; register, the Rev. Dr. F. Langdon Humotheya; historian, Howard Coghel; chaplain the Rev. A. Vermitye; chancellor, C. Stanley Sims.

Margaret Oakley Halsey, daughter of Augustus O. Halsey, a well-known local writter under the pseudonyme of "Barnes Magodin," was married on Wednesday to Randolph Smith Wier, at St. Janee's Episcopal Church, by the Rev. Cyus B. Durand, A reception was held at the home of Mr. Halsey, No. 469 Sumner-ave.

Linnie May Cox, daughter of Isaac F. Cox, was married on Wednesday night to Chorles E. Middleton, of Pittsfield, Maes., by the Rev. Luther R. Dyott, of the First Methodist Protestant Church, The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride, No. 72 Court-st. Henry Middleton was best man, and Miss Estelle M. Bidwell was maid of honor. The bride wore pearl-gray silk.

Mrs. A. F. R. Martin gave a card party on Monday afternoon at No. 894 Broad-st.

The Guild of St. Barnabas Hospital and the sisters in charge gave a tea at the hospital on Thursday, from 3 until 6.

Among those booked for Europe are Miss Elsie Poddie, Dr. Laban Dennie and family, Dr. William Miss Baker.

Mrs. A. P. R. Martin gave a

The most exciting local topic of the week is the reference to the re-engagement of school tenchers only nine out of sixteen being retained. Among those to go are some of considerable personal popularity, and much indignation has been manifested at the action of the board. No official statement last week from their wedding trip.

David B. Ivison, president of the American Book

Company, Mrs. Ivison and Miss Ivison have left New-York for the summer, and are living at lvis-

New-York for the summer, and are living at liviswold.

The Rev. Henry M. Ladd, of Norwood, the new rector of Grace Church, took charge of the parish yeaterday, and on Sunday will conduct services at the church. Next Thursday night a reception will be given for him by the congregation and guild of the church at the home of Robert Smillle, in Sylvan-st.

The Rev. Dr. Edwin A. Bulkley, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, is suending a ten days vacation at Virginia Beach. His pulpit will be filled to-morrow by the Rev. J. A. Reinhart, superintendent of the public schools of Paterson.

At the nineteenth annual meeting of the Rutherford Mutual Loan and Building Association on Thursday night, Robert Burkess, Carl Dannheim and W. A. Freston were elected directors. The directors at their meeting re-elected the old officers, and chose Charles L. Crear as the stockholders auditor.

Bayonse Charles 1. Creat as the stockholders hold in the winter clubhouse of the Newark Bay Boat Club the red-letter jollification in celebration of the organization having passed the 500 mark in memberahis.

The Rev. Henry W. F. Jones, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, has been enjoying a fortight's outing at his farm, near Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierre P. Garvin, of No. 119 West mann, Charles von Brook, in J. Ruthum, every seek was read to the power of the manner of the common ere are young men of good social standing, and all are club members. The team will play this afternoon.

At the meeting of the Board of Education on Thesday it was reported that the Washington School in the Fourir Ward will not accommodate all the pupility and it was decided to obtain estimates for a two-story addition to the building. The following standing committees for the year were amounced: Finance J. R. Livermore, Dr. Live, C. I. Rieeves, Teachers E. B. Goodell, J. R. Howard, Dr. Ayres, T. J. Couter, Dr. Leve, Schoolhouses—C. 1. Rieeves, Dr. Love, F. Mueller, S. J. Holmes, Dr. Ayres, T. J. Couter, Dr. Leve, Schoolhouses—C. 1. Rieeves, Dr. Love, F. Mueller, S. J. Holmes, Dr. Ayres, Heating and Ventilating—H. F. Torrey, Dr. Love, J. A. Livermore, Supplies—Dr. Love, C. H. Johnson, J. R. Livermore, Manual training—Dr. Love, E. Law, E. E. Goodell, C. H. Johnson, J. R. Howard,
The Town Council had a number of appointments to make less Monday evening, the first being the official paper, "The Times," receiving the appointment, Messays, Sigler and Maley were candidates for Superintendent of Roads, Sigler receiving the larger number of votes, James Owen was appointed Town Surveyor. The Council ratified the election of Frederick E. Williams, Montchair Hose Company No. 1, for chef of the Fire Department.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association will give a birthday party on Tresday, May 14, Smail silk bars are provided for the guests, who are expected to place in them as many pennies as they are years old, as an entrance fee. There will be also a sale of cake, candy and aprens.

Next Monday evening Mrs. Florence Howe Hall

trance fee. There will be also a sale of cake, candy and aprons.

Next dorday evening Mrs. Florence Howe Hall will andress the women of Moniciair in the lecture-room of the Congregational Church, on "The Art of Conversation."

The first moonlight run of the Moniciair Wheelmen was taken on Tuesday evening, when they attended in a body the Cyclers Fair in Bloomfield. The Committee of One Hundred connected with the Union Raptist Church will meet next Tuesday evening in the church parlors.

Pirst-st., received their fellow-members of the Emerson Literary Society on Tuesday evening. The works of Ralph Waldo Emerson were the topic for discussion.

NEWARK.

NEWARK.

DIPHTHERIA IN A HOME FOR CHILDREN.

DIPHTHERIA IN A HOME FOR CHILDREN.

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK-INCIDENTS OF INTER-EST-SOCIAL RE-EST-PERSONAL NOTES.

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK-INCIDENTS OF INTER-EST-SOCIAL RE-EST-PERSONAL NOTES.

TOWNSHIP MATTERS OF INTER-EST-SOCIAL RE-EST-PERSONAL NOTES.

ELIZABETH.

MILITARY COMPANIES TO MARCH BY

James R. Pitcher, who was recently appointed James R. Pitcher, who was recently appointed to succeed W. A. Manda as postmaster at Short Hulls, has received his commission.

Nicholas Schmidt, the six-year-old child who was seriously injured on Saturday night by falling from the wall of the new grammar-school building, in Millburn-eye, is out of danger.

The Millburn Vecal Club closed its first season Wednesday night, when it gave a concert in Bonnel's Hall under the management of Miss Amelia Park, organist of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and director of the club.

Mrs. R. Tilton, of Princeton, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Rollin Tilton, of Stockton Park.

Mrs. J. Whitlock, of New-York, has leased for the Mrs. J. Whitlock, of New-York, has leased for the summer and is occupying the Ohrtmann cottage, in North Road.

The Nutley Botany Class met at H. A. Connelly's Hall on Thursday night.

Mrs. W. G. Griffith, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hay, of the Enclosure.

Dr. G. R. Philiower has begun the erection of a modern cottage in Hamilton Place.

The contrast for the construction of the trolley line was given out Monday.

The old tumble-down house formerly the home of Thomas loyle, in William-st., Belleville, has been torn down and carried off piecemeal by a harde of bys. Doyle died in March last, and was a peculiar character. He had lived by himself for the last lifteen years, and had consumed for firewood all the furniture in the house, with the exception of a bel, a chair and a stove. The windows were without glass, and were pasted over with newspapers of dates before the war.

Engineer Dunham's assistants are busy staking Engineer Dunham's essistants are busy staking out the lines on the sewer work.

William Marsh, of Jersey City, will shortly erect a sam and blind factory in the rear of his property in North-ave.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian Church held a sociable in the church Tuesday night.

The Social Club of Westfield gave a reception Tuesday night at the cabrooms to a number of friends. There were music and dancing, followed by a supper.

The Methodist Sunday-school has started rehearsing its Children's Day music, under the direction of J. S. Burhaus.

The Methodist Sunday school has started rehearsing its Children's Day music, under the direction of J. S. Burhaus.

WOODBRIDGE.

C. Poillon, of the Salamander works, will take up his residence at Woodbridge.

A reception was given by the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal Church on Thursday evening. The receipts of the church for the year ending March is amounted to $2,333 51, and the expenses to $2,407 20, leaving a deficit of $73.53.

Arrangements are being made to have a trolley road from Perth Amboy to Maurers.

The Salmagundi Society was entertained at the home of the Misses Pierson Tuesday evening. At a meeting of the Alpine Cemetery Association the following directors were elected; L. E. Potter, Isaac Acker, S. E. Ensign, W. H. Cutter, CRANFORD.

The members of the Cranford Athletic Club have organized a buschall team. At a meeting of the shell team, will be a proposed new sewer were introduced in the meeting of the Clinton Township Committee Monday right. The proposition is to have an excession to the Mean training from the village line in Clinton-ave, to the main sever of Newark, on the same avenue. The system when completed will drain an area of 113 acres, and the cost, including the bonus to Newark, will not exceed $20,000.

The Christian Endeaver Society of the First Christian Church gave a concert in the school hall. The Irvington Board of Health has appointed Ira Mesker Health Inspector to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. J. L. Wade.

The Soliton Township Committee Monday right. The proposition is to have an excession in the emothod training the bonus to Newark, will not exceed $20,000.

The Christian Endeaver Society of the First Christian Church gave a concert in the school hall. The Irvington Board of Health has appointed Ira Mesker Health Inspector to fill the unexpired term of the Lincon and the cost, including the bonus to Newark, will not exceed $20,000.

The Christian Endeaver Society of the First Christian Church gave a concert in the school hall the choles of the Maplewood Methodis receipts of the church for the year ending March all amounted to $2,333 51, and the expenses to $2,407 20, leaving a deficit of $75 63.

Arrangements are being made to have a trolley road from Perth Amboy to Maurers.

The Salmagundi Society was entertained at the home of the Misses Pierson Tuesday evening.

At a meeting of the Alpine Cemetery Association the following directors were elected; L. E. Potter, Isaac Acker, S. E. Ensign, W. H. Cutter, E. Cutter, James Noe and Samuel Garretson.

The members of the Cranford Athletic Club have organized a busehall team. At a meeting to be held to-morrow evening the members of the team will elect officers.

Landen Township authorities wish to know by what right the borough of Roselle is laying sewer pipe through their territory, and at the last meeting of the committee resolutions were passed directing that the work be stopped, even if recourse to the courts should be necessary.

The engagement is announced of Miss Jennie Estelle, deughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley S. Lockwood, and Horace H. King. eldest son of Arthur J. King. of the Dun Mercantile Agency.

W. S. Pierson Post, G. A. R., is making arrangements for a parade on Decoration Day. The Fire Depertment will also take part.

A Japanese tea party, under the auspices of the young people, was given at Spragg's Pavillan on will hold a narror entertainment at the homa of will hold a narror entertainment at the homa of Miss Allen, of Hackettstown, and Clarence E. Barnes.

Mrs. John H. French and the Misses French have issued cards for an afternoon tea, to be given at their home, in West Seventh-st., on Wednesday afternoon of next week.
Mrs. Albert H. Atterbury and Mrs. Jared K. Myers represented Plainfield at the annual dinner of the New-Jersey Saclety of Colonial Dames of America in Trenton this week.
The Monday Afternoon Club has chosen the following officers: President, Mrs. Isaac L. Miller: vice-presidents, Mrs. Elwin L. Conklin, Mrs. W. H. Sterling, and Mrs. H. J. Shrever; treasurer, Mrs. John Gray Foster; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. O. Herring: recording secretary, Miss Jessie D. Munger.

NEW-BRUNSWICK.

The Rev. Archibald A. Murphy was formally in-graduated last month from the New-York College of Dentistry, has opened a dental office at Lambert-

Mrs. Harry A. Neilson and Mrs. Austin Scott, of New-Brunswick, were present at the annual meeting of the New-Jersey Society of Colonial Dames at Trenton on Tuesday.

Frank Nason, an assistant professor at Rutgers College, and Richard Hardenbergh, a civil engineer of New-Brunswick, left on Wednesday for Revelstoke, B. C., about 49 miles from the Pacific Coast. They go to report upon a mine that has just been opened sixty miles from a settlement.

The Grosvenor Club, of Metuchen, ended the social season with a brilliant assembly held in Robins Hall, Metuchen, on Thursday evening.

A definite movement was set on foot at the meeting of the new Middlesex County Board of Freereason with a brilliant assembly held in Robins Hail, Motuchen, on Thursday evening.

A define movement was set on foot at the meeting of the new Middlesex County Board of Freeholders on Wednesday afternoon, looking toward the erection of a stone bridge across the Raritan River to connect Perth Amboy and South Amboy. A committee of five was appointed, and an appropriation made for an engineer's services. It is proposed to bond the county for $150,000.

The Brunswick Bicycle Cibb held its annual dinner at the Mansion House on Tuesday evening. Officers elected were: President, J. A. Bergen; secretary and treasurer, S. G. Lutz; captain, Dr. Harvey Iredell; color bearer, Charles W. Kilbourne; bugler, Anthony Evans.

The congregation of the Livingstone Avenue Baptist Church, of New-Brunswick, gave a reception on Wednesday evening for their new pastor, the Rev. C. A. Jenkins.

Dr. Austin Scott, president of Rutgers College, will deliver an address on "Two Dutles" before the Schoolmasters Caub, of New-York City, at its regularly monthly meeting this evening.

The Guggenheimer Smelting Company, which is erecting a $1,00,000 plant at Perth Amboy, received its first shiphoal of sliver ore from Mexico on Thursday morning of this week. When the plant is in full operation it will employ 2,000 men.

The boathouse of the Brunswick Boat Club has been moored for the season at the bridge crossing the Raritan Elver at Albany-st.

In compliance with the law, Assessor John A. Hicks will begin to take the census of Summit on May 16. When the last census was taken in 1899 the population was 2.940, and it is probable that this year's census will show a gain of from 1,500 to 2.000 population was sort of the property of the same of the IRVINGTON.

Plans for the proposed new sewer were introduced

Mrs. Emma Ridgway, of Kansas City, Mo., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Swain, of the Rahway House.

The Rahway Club has formally opened its hand-

The Rahway Club has formally opened its handsome clubhouse in Bond-st.
St. Mark's Parish has a new priest. Father King, recently of Paterson, has been assigned to the charge by Bishop Wigger.
The Rahway members of the Grand Jury for the May term are William Mersbon, Nathan E. Mead, it, and Dr. H. Page Hough.
Rahway is to have a new opera-house, to be built by a stock company, in Main-st.
The delegates from Rahway to the annual meeting of the State Exempt Firemen's Association at Elizabeth on the 15th are ex-Chiefs Thomas Robinson, Robert Kinsey and Samuel Luke, Chief Louis Pisher and D. R. Parker.

PATERSON.

ELIZABETH

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE 2D REGIMENT

PATERSON

THE FAIR AND THE CIRCUS WERE RIVALS

The pulpit of All Souls' Church was filled on Sunday morning last by Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, who delivered a sermon on the text, "And when they came that were hired at the cleventh hour, they received every man a penny."

The has been holding in its new armory at Marketst, Graham-ave, and Pennington-st. The money is to go toward furnishing the rooms in the administrative end of the building. Joseph W. Congdon, who was iteutenant-colonel in command of the old ist was iteutenant-colonel in command of the old ist came that were hired at the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny."

The big Potter printing press works, which is among the largest of Plainfield's industries, ras restored its old schedule of working hours, with inscreased wages for the men, who for some time have been partly idle. It will naturally follow that times will be better for tradesmen in town also, the better for tradesmen in the present forms and the same are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and men are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and the following result of the same are the same also, and later mustered in the National Section on the same are the Men are an are enlisted in the enterprise. The Pater, and the following result of the later will be never and the must enterpr

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garret R. Oldis, in Rochelle Park, Miss Florence Oldis was married to Charles E. Denholm, of Passaic, by the Rev. of the guests were relatives. Miss Cornella Post was married to Adrian Lyon, a Perth Amboy law-yer, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Post, in Athenia, the Rev. John Gaston, of Passaic, being the officiating clergyman. John McWilliams, of Perth Amboy, was the best man, and the maids of honor were Edna and Josie Schenck, the bride's nieces. The marriage of Harry N. Finch and Miss Martha E. Wilting, in New-York, was quietly conducted because of the recent death of the groom's mother. The Rev. William I. Sweet, of Passaic, tled the knot.

The directors of the Young Men's Christian Association are endeavoring to secure subscriptions for an expensive building, which is to be adapted for use as a public hall. The Passaic Club has also a project for a new building, but there will be difficulty in finding a purchaser for the present property.

When the delegates to the Particular Synod of

Rev. J. A. Hensey, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The work of setting the poles for the trolley wire goes steadily on in Verona. Efforts have been made by outsiders to get the Verona people to start legal proceedings against the prosecution of the work.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church gave the last social of the season on Thursday evening.

HARRISON.

The City Hall was crowded on Monday night with citizens to see the new Common Council organize.
Officers Michael Kennedy and Thomas J. Dolan received gold badges for bravery in arresting three Officers Michael Kennedy and Thomas J. Dolar received gold budges for bravery in arresting three burglars who were attempting to rob the grocery store of W. C. Wocest on February 4. Alderman J. J. Mulligan was elected president.

The new Board of Education organized by electing John J. Coleman president and John F. Reilly secretary. James Stokes was elected janitor of the Hamilton-st. school and John Dunn janitor of the Washington-st. school.

At the meeting of Branch No. 15, St. Patrick's Alliance, Tuesday night, six new members were elected and four applications for membership received.

The funeral of Charles Webber, of No. 208 Harrison-ave., who dropped dead on Saturday morning, took place on Tuesday at his home, and was largely attended.

Harrison Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 held a smoker Tuesday night at the truckhouse, in cleveland-ave.

A kirmess was given by the Children of Mary, of the Holy Cross Church, at Elberon Hall, Harrison, Tuesday night.

The members of the Kearny Fire Department are making active preparations for the election of a chief and two assistant engineers, which will take place in the Township Hall next Wednesday night.

The annual election of the Arlington Club took place on Tuesday night at the clubhouse, with these results: President, George Wiley; vice-presithese results: President, George Wiley; vice-president, Harry C. Belvin; recording secretary, Preston Cooper; Board of Governors, P. Wyatt, Robert Allen, Frederick A. Stratton, Herbert Roome, Michael M. Forrest, Gilbert L. Crowell, Charles H. Morgan, Edward A. Strong and Joseph Hanna. After the election a supper was served.

One hundred boys in the Catholic Protectory have been orizanized as a military company, and are being drilled by Captain McMahon. They will make their first public parade Decoration Day.

A musical and literary entertainment, under the aumices of the Home and Foreign Missionary Society of Arlington, was given on Tuesday night, at the First Presbyterian Church.

Company G. 1st Regiment, has completed the programme for Decoration Day. After a parade in the morning they will go to Franklin, and escort Franklin Division of the G. A. R.

The Caldwell Baseball Club has leased the West The Caldwell Baseball Club has leased the Westville Avenue Athletic Grounds for the summer.

A Sunday-school institute was held in the Presbyterian Church Wednesday afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the Ezsex County SundaySchool Association.

The programme for an organ recital by William
C. Carl, in the Presbyterian Church has been announced. He will be assisted by Miss Kate Parry Douglass, soprano.